

The Riverland Trail is approximately 1 km in length

The Riverland Trail runs along a section of the Grand River in the Riverland subdivision that is located on the west side in Breslau. The trail has a hard packed granular surface and is suitable for hiking and biking. No motorized vehicles are allowed on the trail. As the residential area of the Riverland subdivision continues to develop the trail will be extended.

This trail is not winter maintained.